Class Information

HSTV 437 - US History from 1977 to 1918

This is a fully online course that covers Native American history, African-American history, immigrant history, and the origins of the Populist and Progressive parties, which is particularly relevant today. For any aspiring teachers, this course might be of particular appeal or for anyone who is curious about how our current political parties and the history of our relationship to minority populations and immigration evolved. The course requires some reading, but the lectures are all in the form of online videos, and there are a number of very good documentaries. There are two papers required, but no other exams.

NETCOM Internship

NETCOM is looking to hire 100+ IT folks at interns. Requirements are Computer Engineers, Electronics Engineers, and Computer Scientists that got an undergraduate degree in the last 2 years. I figured this may be a great opportunity for some of our recent Cyber Ops, Electrical and Computer Engineering, Informatics, and Intelligence Studies graduates. Even better, UA South would be a great connection because of its proximity to Ft. Huachuca.
