Student Services Fee Committee Members Needed

Student Service Fee Committee is searching for one graduate and five undergraduate students who are interested in participating on the Student Services Fee Committee. The committee is a deliberating body that votes on the use of the Student Services Fee (SSF) and provides advice and recommendations to the Student Services Department on how to allocate these monies based on the requests that are presented to the committee. The fee is $40 per semester (prorated based on units enrolled) and is paid by all UA students, for additional info http://bursar.arizona.edu/students/fees/service.

If you are interested, the commitment of time would be approximately a few hours, SSFC meeting annually in April, a meal will be provided during meeting time. We look forward to hearing from you!

Additional information can be found at: http://uas.arizona.edu/student-services-fee
