4th National
WOMEN IN CYBERSECURITY (WICYS) CONFERENCE
TUCSON, ARIZONA | MARCH 31 - APRIL 1, 2017

t.university-of-arizona.edu/asuas

The WICYS initiative was launched with support from a National Science Foundation (NSF) grant awarded #1352447. Since 2014, with additional support from industry, government and academic partners, WICYS has become the premier event to recruit, retain and advance women in cybersecurity.

WICYS brings together women in cybersecurity from academia, research and industry for sharing of knowledge/experience, networking and mentoring. Beyond the annual conference, WICYS is a community of engagement, encouragement and support for women in cybersecurity.

Internship Opportunity: Spring/Summer/Fall 2017

Senator Jeff Flake’s Tucson office is currently accepting applications for their 2017 spring, summer, and fall internship program.

Interns will have the opportunity to experience firsthand how a state office of a United States Senator operates by assisting the Senator’s staff with a variety of tasks including:

- Interacting with constituents
- Assisting people who need help with federal agencies
- Working on a variety of research projects
- Regularly attending meetings and community events with staff

This is a highly competitive program. Successful candidates will demonstrate an eagerness to learn about federal public policy and how it affects local communities. Upperclassmen with at least a 3.0 grade point average are given priority.

The office is located at 6840 N. Oracle Road. Students are expected to complete at least 135 hours during the semester to receive 3 units of credit. The University of Arizona offers internship credit in several departments. Interested applicants should send an email to Flake_Tucson@fiu.senate.gov or call 520-579-8633.
