Exciting Opportunity - Hack Arizona March 6-8, 2015 at UA Main Campus

Do you want to work with a team to develop a software or hardware project that you have been considering for a while?

Do you want to network with potential employers and technical professionals?

You should consider participating in Hack Arizona!

Hack Arizona is the first major collegiate hackathon in Arizona. The event is similar to our hackathon counterparts from around the country (Cal Hacks at UC Berkeley and Penn Apps at the University of Pennsylvania), where over 400+ students from across the country will gather for a weekend of agile software and hardware projects. Hack Arizona is geared to take place the weekend of March 6th, where the most passionate and motivated technical students will compete for prizes, network with potential employers and seek the mentorship and camaraderie of tech professionals and fellow peers.

Students from all backgrounds and interests encouraged to participate. If you have a unique idea that requires technology - sign up!
